

AS9100 / ISO 9001 Certification Status Notice

Hialeah Metal Spinning, Inc. has recently completed an AS9100 and ISO 9001 audit and is currently in the transition process to a new third-party certification body. As part of this transition, our AS9100 and ISO 9001 certificates have been temporarily removed from our website while the new certification documentation is finalized. We anticipate receipt of our updated AS9100 and ISO 9001 certificates from our new third-party auditor in March 2026, at which time the certificates will be reposted to our website. If you require a copy of our current AS9100 and/or ISO 9001 certification during this transition period, please contact our Sales team at: Sales@hmsmfg.us We appreciate your understanding and continued confidence in Hialeah Metal Spinning, Inc.'s commitment to quality and compliance.
